

THE COE NOACK MEMORIAL

March 25, 1989 to April 12, 2008

$500 SCHOLARSHIP

Coe Noack was an incredibly intelligent, funny, individualistic young man, with close friends who looked up to him because he questioned them on all of the uncertainties of this world. Coe did not follow the traditional high school education and elected to attend Project Ready (now known as Thomas Edison Academy) to get his high school diploma. Life took a very different direction when at the age of 19 he died unexpectedly, two days after he was accepted to Job Corps. He left behind three sisters and one brother. His older sister Amy graduated from Project Ready. She attended Hamilton Technical College and graduated with a degree as a Medical Assistant. This is why the Noack family is offering a $500 scholarship to a Pleasant Valley High School student who graduates from Thomas Edison Academy and is going on to higher education.
